DETAILED ACTION

1. According to paper filed on May 7, 2008, the applicants have amended claim 55.
2. Claims 31-56, 59 and 61-63 are pending in the application.

Response to Arguments

3. Applicant's arguments filed on May 7, 2008 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive regarding obviousness rejection. The examiner agrees with the applicant's arguments regarding anticipation rejection. In regard to obviousness rejection, the examiner agrees with the applicants arguments on page 3 that one skilled in the art would not have predicted the memory-improving activity of instant compounds and therefore, claims 55, 56, 59 and 62 were allowed even in the last office action. However, the instant claims 31-33, 36, 38, 40, 41, 44, 52 and 54 are directed to compounds or pharmaceutical composition containing these compounds and therefore, are not directed to a method of improving memory. The cited reference does demonstrate the antinociceptive activity of compound 7 ( sinomenine derivative, see first paragraph under results and discussion as well as table 1 ) and therefore, it would have been obvious to one skilled in the art to prepare the instant sinomenine derivatives having antinociceptive activity with reasonable expectation of success.

Conclusion

4. Rejection of claims 31-33, 36, 38, 40, 41, 44, 52 and 54 under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) is maintained for the reasons of record.
  5. Objection of claims 34, 35, 37, 39, 42, 43, 45-51, 53 and 61 for being dependent upon rejected claims is maintained for the reasons of record.
  6. Claims 55, 56, 59, 62 and 63 are allowed.
- 7. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
